

1.1.0 sent Mar 31 1891

L663

136

Special Notice relating to Vacancies in the List of First Subscribers.

ARUNDEL SOCIETY.

19, St. James' Street, London, S.W.

Sir

28 February, 1891

I am directed by the Council to inform you, that at the Annual Revision of the List of First Subscribers, which has just taken place, it has been found that there is a vacancy which you are eligible to fill.

If you desire to avail yourself of this privilege, granted by the sixth Rule of the Society, you will be required to pay the "first" annual subscription of £1 : 1 : 0, on or before 31st day of March next.*

In default of such payment within the period specified, you will lose for the time being the right of becoming a First Subscriber, and your name will be considered as transferred to the bottom of the "second" list, to which it now belongs. You can at your pleasure continue or (after this year) relinquish the "second" subscription, but by paying £2 : 2 : 0 per annum instead of £1 : 1 : 0, you will be entitled to the publications of both classes of subscribers. will you however be good enough to let the know your decision as to this.

Subscriptions may be paid either here (Postal Orders to be made payable to DOUGLAS H. GORDON, at the Burlington House Post Office); at Messrs. COUTTS & Co., 59, Strand; or to one of the Local Agents of the Society.

I am,

Yours faithfully,

DOUGLAS H. GORDON,

Secretary.

To General Pitt Rivers

* Members may compound for the Annual payment of £1 : 1 : 0 by a Life Subscription of £15 : 15 : 0.