East Knoyle,

Salisbury,

7th Sept 1891.

Sir,

I take the liberty of addressing you for the purpose of enquiring whether any brief account has been published of the results of your excavations and investigations with regard to ancient British & Roman remains, and, if so, where can a copy be procured?

I have heard several people speak of your Museum at Rushmore and I shall be glad to know whether it is open to the public, and, if so, on what days, as I should much like to visit it.

I must apologize for troubling you with this letter, but I believe it is always the best plan to apply to headquarters for reliable information.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Robert Cross.

General Pitt-Rivers & R.S.
