

authority of the district (or districts) affected be induced to take up the question. I beg leave to suggest that a united effort should be made in this direction, and I think that the object in view would soon be accomplished.

I am, Sir,
Your obed^t. Serv^t
E. MacKland
Genl. A. M. Rivers

Amos

(L71)

Salisbury
17 Sept. 91

Sir,

Although Woodcutts is would be the most central place for a Telegraph Office I think that such an arrangement would be unsatisfactory inasmuch as it would be away from anyone who would be likely to use it. I have therefore recommended a new line from Salisbury with three Offices, viz:- Bower Chalk, Handley, and Tolland Royal.

I am afraid, however,
that nothing will be done unless the Department be guaranteed against loss.

You are probably aware of the provisions of the Post Office Act passed at the end of the last session (54 & 55 Vic Ch. 46)

Section 8 enables the rural sanitary authority to undertake to pay the Postmaster General any ^{loss} which he may sustain by reason of the establishment of such increased facilities as are asked for in this case.
Cannot the sanitary