

& could have sold times over, but refused: I would not part with it now, were it not going into a museum where it will be more cared for & greatly admired.

You will I am sure be delighted with it, & when you have seen it, I shall be pleased to hear from you to that effect.

Yours very faithfully,
J. Smith Bucknole.

P.S. I have a "Dorset's Bible" dated 1592 which I would sell for same price, viz £5, but I am told it is worth much more. I have been offered a Polyglot Bible, beautifully bound, which cost considerably over £5, in exchange for it.
If you cared to have it I would enclose with Skillet.
