My dear General
I enclose you a sketch by Harry Dillm of the roof of the New Museum at Charterhouse which I told you ~~of~~
and also by book post

in a roll a tracing showing the roof
to scale - It is one of the neatest & best roofs I have ever seen Quantities of light & very picturesque - &

not at all expensive I think it would be just the thing for your large room at the Lanna
Tree -

I have been rather long getting this but I wanted

Judge, for I had to guess them as I could not actually measure them. If you want it I can make a more accurate drawing & send it: the brackets which support the framework of the roof are fastened to the walls, but I could not see how.
hoping that you & cousin Lily are both well & spending a pleasant time

believe me

your affec nephew

CHARTERHOUSE,
GODALMING.

Dear Cousin Alec

I have made a rough pen and ink drawing of the roof on the other side of this letter which I hope will do; the measurements are as nearly correct as I can
