Dear General Pitt Rivers -

Mr Dyer who I arranged with you should come to inspect the pictures at Rushmore has been & is in a domestic affliction & I have settled that his brother (who is almost as accomplished an expert as W. Dyer) should call upon you & examine

The pictures, & if the bulging canvases cannot be got straight in situ arrange with you for their coming to town to be put right - Mr C. Dyer is to be at Banston on Monday afternoon, will go on to Wimborne to sleep, see to the pictures at Kington last early on Tuesday & come to you afterwards, returning to London on Tuesday evening - I often think & speak of those delightful & most interesting hours I spent with you at Wash-more! - With best compliments believe me very truly yours

R. Albert Rossby
