Dear General Pitt-Rivers

Thank you very much indeed for the copy of your book on King John's house which you have so kindly sent me; <sup>+ which came this morning -</sup> I was so much interested in all you shewed me, + am very glad to have your account of it, which

I shall value very much.

I feel as if I had not half thanked you for your kindness in shewing us so much the other day, all of which interested me extremely

Believe me

Yours very truly

Respectfully
S. Foljambé
