

Again thanking you
I am Sir, Yours truly
Robert: Surtees.

Dear Sir,

I received your letter of 17 Inst: also the measuring machine which reached me safely y'day for w<sup>ch</sup> of which I beg leave to thank you.
I shall no doubt have to apply to you again ere long for advice and assistance.
As soon as I have ordered the scales I shall send them up to the Off: of Out: when the scales has arranged to lay them out in the upper Gallery of the Library. I hope to start the first lot off from here tomorrow or next day and trust that Professor Fowen will visit them in a few days & determine the doubtful specimens.

Should you be in London shortly we all hope you will also be able to inspect them.

I do not know whether I said in my last letter that a number of fruit stones, Cerasus & Prunus were found in a pit in and around a cooking pan broken into two pieces one of which were found.

I see from your book that Prof: Caruthers examined the scyitable remains found at Woodcotes &c. and think the best course will be for him to examine those found at the Sil: <sup>Leicester</sup>.
I sell some there one two or: of Cherry & I think more than two of Plum.
We have also some fragments of work chiefly from the birning of a well.
