Dear Genl Pitt Rivers

I am to give two lectures on Anthropology at Oxford in the Museum Lecture-Room on Thursday 15th & Wednesday 21st at 2.30.
In saying something of your Collection, I am thinking of the following as ~~points~~ one may mention intelligibly without having the specimens to show — viz. parrying-stick & shield; spring-trap & bow; surrials of armour. Also your ~~stone~~ implement in wall of Egyptian tomb. Is there any other topic connected with the educational use of the Collection which you think should be brought forward if there is opportunity?

I am glad to hear that the Oxford arrangements for the Museum seem in a fair way of settlement, but sorry to learn that you had
