

went to ride on from Sherborne to see about the Simile

A most interesting
but awful book!

Ans'd.
March 3/92

Feb. 22. 1892

1824

The Moot.
Downton.
Wilts.

Dear General Pitt Rivers

If, as I hope you are on the high road to health
again, as I happily is my case, it may interest you to look at the enclosed Photograph of the

Roman Standard Bearer
at Heyham of which I wrote you.

"Vae victis" is written eloquently enough in the face of the trampled on Briton - But isn't it the type of the Carnute
"Flamoyan hill Welshmen."

Gyffernul
Cias P. Gyffernul

Journal Pitt Rivers
Rushmore
Salisbury

I say stepping up of Sir Walter Raleigh. Must Rushmore belonged to Cecil & that Sir W