

in the Brigade point-to-point for my Regiment.

It is delightful to hear of you getting out again.
You made such a long halt in your recovery & would tell me she saw no perceptible change for the better in you while she was there. But now I hope you will get rapidly well. Though you must be fearfully careful of yourself Thanking you again. With love your very affectionate son A. Pitt

1827
VICTORIA BARRACKS,
WINDSOR.

Feb: 25th 92.

My Dear Father

So many thanks for your most welcome present. It is the cure that owing to having to take over the Dray Hounds I have plunged into the extravagance of a new horse. While I lie back with two others will come a bit expensive in vet. bills &c. It was most kind & thoughtful of you to give me a help up.

The £50 was within 8 shillings of the sum I gave at Tattersalls for my new mare

& I think she will turn out trump. She is by "Ascelic" the sire of
'Roman Oak' & 'Christie' two grand national horses.
She is very fast & a brilliant performer. I rode her into the Day yesterday & she was easily first the whole way. I don't know how I managed to get her so cheap. I have been asked to ride