WHATCOMBE,
BLANDFORD.
—AND TELEGRAPH—

April 24. 1892

My dear General Pitt-Rivers,

Thank you for your very suggestive letter. The amalgamation of our Club with two or three others of the Western Counties is a splendid one & quite new to me. I believe it is in its germ and as such it will be necessary I keep it at high pressure with top fuel & keep up the steam. I shall think out your scheme & set to work at once with Mr. J. S. Stuart as to be able to feel the pulse of the Members at the next meeting which will probably take place in May. Mr. J. S. Stuart will be a good person to apply to a member of the Movement. I feel that I am anxious to write this with warm thanks for your letter. I know the post box is closed

I remain your most truly
Edmund Meredith
