My dear Pitt-Rivers

Many thanks for your kind congratulatory
-lations on my K.C.B.

Mr Pitt Rivers and
you may also more
heartily congratulate me on my approaching
marriage to Miss M.
Lathbury, a lady whose name you may per-haps have heard in connexion with Greek archaeology - Apart
from any such requirements

She is very charming and I look forward
both confidence to our again having a happy home - All my children are pleased at the prospect - I hope that you may soon shake
off this bronchial
attack and both very kind regards remain

Yours sincerely

John Evans

I will send the book to Grosvenor Gardens
