London July 2nd 1892

S.W.

To General Pitt Rivers
F. R. S.

Sir

I more than sincerely apologize, and would not trouble you in the matter had I any other alternative. I have done my utmost but cannot ascertain the address of Arthur Fox Pitt Esq.

I thought perhaps upon your kind and generous consideration you might either use your kind influence or, give me his address.

From the aristocratic position of this young gentleman, I had no hesitation in putting him upon my books, - too, he had handsome value for the charges made and really which I cannot afford to lose.

Again very sincerely sorry having to trouble you and thanking you for very esteemed favours.

I am Sir
Yours very obediently
J. Stephens
