

1896

WHATCOMBE, BLANDFORD.
—AND TELEGRAPH—

July 13. 1892

My dear General Pitt Rivers
Of the two rival Candidates, I think you will agree with me that Mr Digby is the best. If this is your opinion ^{and} you think it is worth the shot. I am asked if you could introduce a man by name George Coombe who is working for Mr. Green at Bournemouth. & Spetter by Tisbury to put his vote in his intention to vote for Mr Digby if he can get the polling both. It will be a close shave. I hope he may bring in a dozen men as the other three divisions have done. Mr Arnold is a Brigadier of the first degree he & his myrmidon are instilling cowardly, hated and robbery in every form and fashion.

I remain

Yours most truly

V. M. Arnold - Peyton
