Dear General Pitt Rivers, I hope to have entirely finished the picture of Mrs Scott & her daughter by the end of this week, & I write to ask if after allowing a few days for it to dry properly - you would wish me to send it to Rushmore or retain it here in case you would like any friends to see it.

I have not yet ordered its frame - being under the impression that the temporary frame it has been painted in would serve until you had seen it & decided whether to exhibit it next year - as I think Mrs. Brown's frame got damaged in the double journey.

This temporary frame was round Mrs. Brown's picture on my show day last March.
It is a narrow rim of common gilt - as perhaps you remember - but sufficient for the purpose.

I am anxiously hoping that the result in Mrs. Scott's picture may be satisfactory to you as I feel both you
