with Audrey's study
I hear Willy has been at Brynpton whilst
I have been away
I am so sorry I have missed him.

I hope you are all
well

My dear Alice

I have been meeting
Mr. Charles Abland & have promised to make enquiries as to the best man to consult about opening
a British encampment on his father Sir T. Abland's property on the

Baroness of Somerset
& Deacon W. Meland
is much interested
but does not know
how to go to work, so
it would be very kind if the General
would tell him

of somebody who was trustworthy on the subject.
I hope you were interviewed with me for writing. He lives at Killerton, Exeter

My mother went a little while ago to stay with the 1st Leveaux & liked her visit to them very much, & she
