

1984

WHATCOMBE, BLANDFORD.
—AND TELEGRAPH—

Dec 20. 1892

My dear General Pitt Rivers

I am writing you a line to wish you & Mrs Pitt Rivers an anticipatory happy Christmas and New Year - that you may escape the sufferings you have undergone this year. A hard winter as there is nothing to begeth & the conventional Christmas of hard frosts & red-tipped noses. I have no doubt if we go on through January as now it will be better for both of us - I have not heard much of you lately. I have no doubt you are hard at work with your pen and compass. But I hope you have succeeded good work until the Spring. We had a good meeting with our tried clerk the week before last Mrs Richardson is a good successor to Martin & I think I think we shall be in prospect with her help - she is a high worker. I shall now collect the notes of the Hills, as I have many collected the good been you on my hand much regard to Mrs Pitt Rivers

& believe me
Yours very sincerely
Edmund Playdell

I am so glad to hear from Hathley & wish you success of the Journal