

for nothing is yet settled about
the future of the Athenaeum. The great thing is to have the promise of the series.

You will see that the subject is reached in the present number of the A. A.

The difficulty will be getting each £100 for annum for keeping up the Museum.

An ^{hon.} Comtee. will

As how many medals are there in all? 1891-14

No doubt he found me Dec. 31/92 for help.

NATIONAL CONSERVATIVE CLUB, PALM MALL.

(L985)

Dec. 24.

Dear General Pitt Rivers

I am much obliged for your letter, & kind encouragement in the matter of the 'Antiquary Commiss'rs'. It gets very inadequate
support in Oxford.
More antiquarists
at present may

NATIONAL CONSERVATIVE CLUB
PAID MAIL

be counted on our fingers & toes. Pray, if you have opportunity, ~~write~~ enlist as many supporters as possible, or the venture will not reach a second volume.

You will have seen this received Part II, in which

there is a very good article by Mr. H. Balfour. -
One of the objects
is to draw attention to the more important contents of the Oxford Museum.

As regards the Models; there is no necessity for preparing them
for speedy transit