Dec 28,

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,
I omitted, I believe,
in my letter, last
week to explain
that there is no
hurry about the models
of crosses, since the Assurance will not be vacated, at least
before the commencement of 1894. What I should be glad to know, at your early

convenience is which space the models would require
to show them off
to advantage.

The great point
I have in a position to mention is that you kindly offer the series
in case the ashtray should be devoted to architectural casts, and other purposes.

I am for truly
Yours
