Dear Sir,

You have already sent us Vols I & II of your work on Excavations, bound in the same manner as Vol: III sent recently. I am sorry you have no spare covers, because I wished to get my own private copy of Vol: I, left me in her will by a lady in Oxford bound up in the same style as the three vols belonging to the Ashmolean. It unfortunately is only in paper covers at present. Wishing you a prosperous New Year I am Dear Sir
Yours most respectfully
Edward Evans
