

send a note to me at Sturdley this afternoon on your return from Barnes - I think myself as there is nothing desirable about the Bridmore Farm it would be better not to run the risk of giving him notice & perhaps lose the Farm on hand - I have no reason to think of course that Linn will depart from the promise he has already made in his letter.

Yours obed. Servant
A. Pitt-Rivers

(B10)

Sturminster Newton,

Blandford 29th Sept 1882

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

I received your letter at Sturminster this morning before leaving it also the one at Sturdley.
The allotment farms on Mr. Linn's Farm are under tenants of his the notice given him is quite sufficient as far as you are concerned, the tenants of the Allotment Land we entitled to six months notice only from Mr Lums as yearly tenants we always entitled to this notice must be given by Mr Lums in March next.

I yesterday evening had a letter from Mr Lums of Bridmore as to Rotherly Dam as follows
"Your letter has taken me
" by surprise but still I am willing " to oblige the General my way I " can and will give up ^{what} he requires

" provided I can still have a dam " for the sheep on the Dam, we " can come to further arrangements
" when I see you -

I presume it will not therefore be necessary to send Mr Lums of Bridmore with a notice as he has made this promise, if you should wish him to have a notice to leave to make it quite safe may I ask you to kindly
