

Low and other expenses of forming and maintaining a company of this kind are so heavy.

Chapman is writing you fully as to the well, the garden wall is about half built the stone work was begun on Monday last.

I beg to enclose you particulars of some lifeholds just fallen in.

The rain a week ago did a lot of good and prospects at present are very promising.

I remain
Yours very obedt servant

Blandford 18th June - 1884

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

Mrs Poyer of Southampton is to give a reply positively as to the villa at Boker by the 24th (Whit-Sunday) she has been very ill but I hope may be better by that time and will be able to take the train, as soon as her reply reaches me

I will communicate with you, should you decide to furnish it the Front of the other House will take charge of it but it will I think require a good deal of consideration as to buying premises as 3 or 4 years rent would soon be ~~gone~~ lost on a re-sale of the premises when the House is let.

The Building Company at West Bury should they get any funds to build with cannot do but very little except on your land or on the other side of the Street or that of Lord Leicester & you will recollect that an understanding is come to with him as to the price of building sites, I think myself the Company ought to be wished away except as to whatever they do must increase the value of your land at the Street as well as at Bury but at the same time I fear they will get no one desirous to take up the shares when the
