

† Saturday next but if as I expect you arrived at Rushmore yesterday I will go there on my morning that you may desire prior to that.

I have not yet given Messrs. Sims & Phillips notice to leave but only informed them they must expect them but it must not be done as it can be withdrawn if you wish to alter your plans they to remain. In order to be on the safe side it will be better also I think to give Hiscock notice as I do not think he can go on long. I remain

Your very obedt. Servant
A. H. H. H.

(89)

Sturminster Newton,
Blandford, 23rd Sept - 1882

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

The enclosed letter mentioning yours of the 3rd inst. was written and duly forwarded to you on the 8th and now very much to my surprise and regret it has been just received from the dead letter office, although it was plainly addressed it had been misport in the post according to the several marks on it. Although there were

† Saturday next but if as I expect you
arrived at Rushmore yesterday I
will go there on my morning that
you may desire prior to that.

I have not yet given Messrs. Sims &
Phillips notice to leave but only informed
them they must expect them but it must not be done as it can be withdrawn
if you wish to alter your plans they
to remain. In order to be on the safe side it will be better also I think to give Hiscock notice as I do not think he can go on long. I remain

Your very obedt. Servant
A. H. H. H.

(89)

Sturminster Newton,
Blindford, 23rd Sept - 1882

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

The enclosed letter mentioning
yours of the 3rd inst. was written
and duly forwarded to you on the 8th and now very much to my surprise and regret it has been
just received from the dead letter
office, although it was plainly addressed it had been mispent in the post according to the several
marks on it. Although there were