Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

The chapel at Chapel Summ is the place of worship for the hamlet of Gysinge St.
Andrew in the Parish of Stoddley, it forms part of the vicarial glebe property of that Parish, it does not belong to you and never at any time formed part of the to state, I think it is fortunate it does not belong to you or otherwise you would be here to keep it in a good state of repair for the People who attend there & these come chiefly from Bushmore and are not your tenants.

I remain

Your very obedt. Servant

Alfred
