Dear Sir,

We beg leave to inform you that we are exhibiting at the Exhibition which opens on the 7th instant at Earls Court; our exhibit is situated in the Imperial Gardens (or main building), and we shall have on view there a most Unique Collection of Japanese & Chinese Works of Art, comprising Ivory Carvings, Gold Lac Ware, Bronzes, Pottery, Enamels, Furniture &c.

We most respectfully solicit the honour of a visit, and if you will so favour us, it will be a great pleasure to submit for your inspection (without in any way desiring to unduly press you to purchase) pieces which are well worth seeing from an Artistic point of view.

Thanking you for past favours and assuring you of our best attention at all times,

We beg to remain,

Dear Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servants,

THE INDO-CHINA CURIO TRADING COMPANY.
