My dear father

You evidently could not have read my letter properly, or you would have seen that I did not say that I was first in the hunting field - If any one told you that when I rode ^{the} my black man I had I was not amongst the first & were in at the date, they told you what was not true, as for anyone saying that I go home when the fox is found I should like to know who has ever known me go home from the vale or any good meet before the end? Of course what I should like is to have 2 or 3 really good hunters, but as I have only one horse that has every thing to learn & is very fidgety with horns

I have to make the best of it.

Yours affec son
Wm Pitt.
