

Now they must you will let me know by Monday I thought of including your beautiful "Armer Grounds." It will of course be only a little plate
in an illustrated paper
and in no way
depreciate the value of the original.

Yours truly

J. I. Foster.

General Pitt Rivers.

DICKINSON & FOSTER,
BY APPOINTMENT.

114, New Bond Street,

LONDON.

AND 2, ORIEL STREET, OXFORD.

June 28. 1895

Dear General.

I have acceded to a request that an illustrated page relative to "Wessex" should appear in the St James's Budget next week. I should not have any objection

which I confess I hardly anticipate