Dear General

I wrote you before, letter must have reached you at some busy time

I am old friend of N. Zealand was am writing a book on Maori art

In G. Grey & many authorities have seen it & approved

I have found out where most of the tattooed Maori heads are, & copied most or had photographs given me

Could I know how many are in your Museum - if you will forward this letter to your Curator

- (1) are they all men
- (2) any particular markings (or photos)
- (3) a few notes on your specimens

apology for trouble -

I am
Yours

Edwin Robley (now my General)
