My dear General

I was sorry not to see you to say goodbye.

The more I think on your diggings the more it seems to me that most interesting account of the Wilbur downs, might be given, founded guilty on them.

Your projected diagrams are most telling.

Could not Lowell
do this? It seemed interested in the idea, & it would be a nice

piece of work for him.

A great deal of it is already to hand in your books

I hope you did not
