My dear General

I was very sorry
to hear the other day from Sir Wollaston that you were again ill, and trust by this time your health has improved.

It occurred to me that perhaps I might be of assistance to you, in an honorary capacity, in connection with the Ancient Monuments.

I shall be only too

willing to do anything that you may desire & which may tend to lighten any burden pressing upon you during your indisposition.

I have had a good time at Darenth for eight months this year & hope to resume work in the spring. We took £300 at the gates, so
paid all expenses

Believe me
Yours very faithfully
George Payne
