Dear Sir,

I beg to enclose a copy of your family memoir as it appeared in the last edition of the Landed Gentry (1894) so that you may have an opportunity of making any additions or corrections that are necessary. As I am anxious to make the forthcoming edition very accurate and complete I trust you will revise the enclosed carefully and return it to me. May I also ask you to be good enough to send me a copy of your bookplate so that I may, if possible, reproduce it, of course on a smaller scale, as an illustration of the notice of your family in my work?

Believe me

Yours faithfully

Ashworth P. Burke
