

The bipennis is described in Deudens Catalogue (they are of course all from his collection) p 7. No 63.64.

Ans'd.
Sept. 11/97.

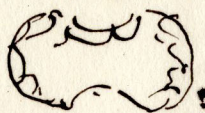

21933
10 Sept^r. 1897

BRITISH MUSEUM,

LONDON: W.C.

My dear General

I am sending you a small box to Tribury station containing some of the implements from Stourpaine for your museum. There are six of a special type from that locality -  a kind of bipennis - ~~four~~³ of the picks I spoke of - As local types they will I hope be acceptable

Yours truly

Genl.

Pitt Rivers Esq.

Charles H. Read