

British Museum & other reading rooms, in which they may be found I have also another favour to ask I took the liberty of copying a lucky-stone from your work as a diagram for illustrating my paper on the superstitions attached to "Holes in Archaeology" & as I am now endeavouring to find a publisher for a ^{small} volume of articles from various sources I should like to be allowed to include that stone in my illustrations, of course with due acknowledgment if you have no objection to my so doing.

Trusting you are well & able to continue your interesting investigations I am

Yours greatly obliged
W. M. Buckland.

Decr 13th / 99

And
Jan. 10 / 99

Cloth

(L2276)

5, Beaumont Crescent,
West Kensington. W.

Dear Genl. Pitt Rivers
I see by the new No 14 of the Anthropological Journal that you have issued a fourth vol.
of your valuable work After your many kindnesses I feel quite ashamed to ask but as you have already favoured me with the three former volumes, I should indeed feel grateful if you could complete the set - Books such as yours are especially valuable to me now when I am no longer able to visit the