

L2305

Bodleian library

Oxford

Dec. 31 1898

Dear Sir

I beg you to accept the best thanks of the Curators of the Bodleian and of myself for the *undermentioned very valuable by yourself
work which you have been so kind as to present to the library of the University, where it cannot fail to be appreciated as it deserves.

Yours very faithfully

E. W. B. Nicholson

Librarian

* Excavations in Cranborne Chase, near Rushmore, on the borders of Dorset and Wilts, 1893-1896 ... Vol. IV. - Printed privately, 1898.

Lieut.-Gen. Pitt Rivers, D.C.L.