WHATCOMBE,
BLANDFORD.
—AND TELEGRAPH—

January 2 1899

My dear & kind General

I cannot let the new year to come upon us without offering you every affectionate wish for it will prove to you from the commencement to the end. our feelings change to you & Mrs Pitt Rivers & that you might receive the strength you lack in the past winter. I can offer sincerely to see you improve but am cheered by the strength & activity of your mental energies & the opportunities of exercising than at Rensselaer.

My son takes possession of Sturminster Vicarage next month. I feel sure you will find him everything you could wish.

With our united respects sent under 5 Mrs Pitt Rivers & myself to a happy 10th Reg

I remain

Ever your affectionately
I remain
Edward Maydell
