My dear General.

Some time since
I purchased part I & II (in paper covers) of the Catalogue of the "Low-
-Fox" Collection. In the Preface to the Small Vol., it was stated that were the parts to follow.

Are they yet in print?
I have been adding to the ^{very} few things I have gathered round me & have tried to follow in the same line: you laid down & trace the successive development of things. But to get even an imperfect series is difficult: I can
- not well write any
- thing in the way of Bronze sword anywhere.
Trusting you are well Believe me to be Yr very truly
