

Dryden's paper when you have finished with it, that number of the Art-Journal containing Illustrations of Celtic Art: I superintended the emptying of a Roman well at Blisworth last week, the bottom of which was formed of Cement. about 3 inches deep. the chief object of interest was a large piece of wood, which looked as if might have formed part of a large wheel.

I am
Yours obediently
Thomas J. George

Museum and

Free Library,

Northampton,

May 16th 1888

Returned
26. May. 88
Dear Sir.

I have just heard from Mr Baker telling me that his paper on the Sane's Camp collection will be read on June 21st at the Society of Antiquaries. so I must begin and pack up as much of the collection as I can personally manage. I shall be glad if you will let me have back Sir Henry